THE GIRL FROM TEREZIN

A WW2 Holocaust Survival True Story

Hana Sternlicht

In the brutal winter of 1942, twelve-year-old Hana Sternlicht is torn from her home and transported to the Theresienstadt ghetto. As ghetto life constantly tests her resolve, she survives by finding shelter in a Heim – a girl's house operating discreetly under the ruthless Germans. But when Jews begin to disappear into crowded freight trains, never to be seen again, Hana knows that her time in Terezin is over – though her journey of survival has only just begun. An unbelievably brave journey based on the incredible true story of Holocaust survivor Hana Sternlicht.

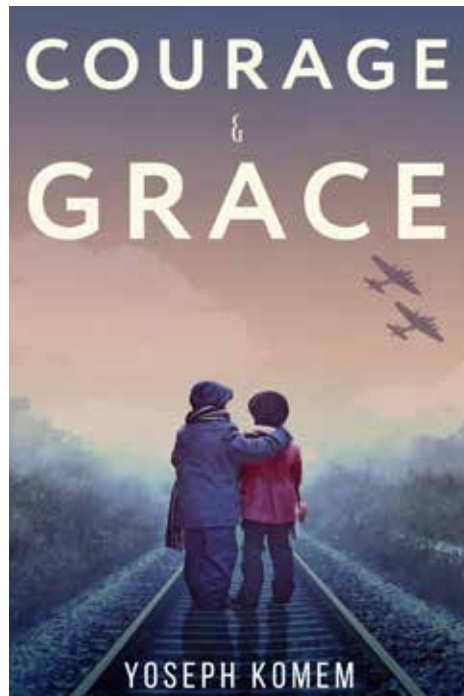

THE PHOTOGRAPHER'S SON

A WW2 Historical Novel, Based on a True Story of a Jewish Holocaust Survivor

Maya C. Klinger

A middle-grade, true WWII story of a Jewish family of photographers told from the perspective of Gavra, the five-year-old son. The journey, full of struggles and extraordinary events, reaches its peak with a remarkable rescue by a Muslim family, demonstrating that genuine friendship and compassion can overcome evil and surpass religious boundaries.

The Hebrew edition received the prestigious "Yad-Vashem" award, was listed as a recommended book by the Ministry of Education, and was chosen by elementary school students as one of their favorite reads for the 2022-2023 school year. The book is set to be released in Germany in 2024.

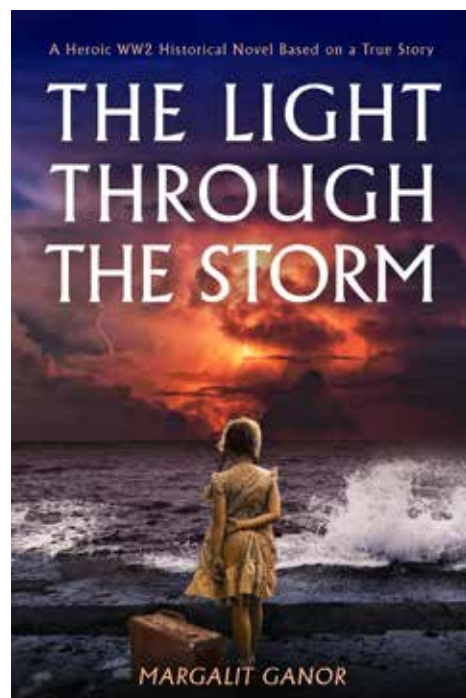

COURAGE & GRACE

*Turbulent Journeys from Darkness to Light In the Years
1936-1950 and Beyond*

Yoseph Komem

“Courage and Grace” is the chilling story of one small family’s bid for survival against the brutal Nazi occupation. Two young brothers and their parents are aided by the courageous, uncompromising support of non-Jewish acquaintances and strangers, who help them to survive against all odds, all the way through to their rebirth in the new State of Israel.

THE LIGHT THROUGH THE STORM

*A Heroic WW2 Historical Novel
Based on a True Story*

DR. Margalit Ganor

August, 1942. Dr. Leon Schmeltzer, his wife Donia, and their baby daughter attempt to flee Nazi-occupied Romania under the cover of darkness. They hastily board a small ship, leaving behind family, friends, and the only life they ever knew – But their path to freedom does not sail over smooth waters.

Even as endless waves threaten to drown what little hope they have, the desperate refugees find that the hatred in the hearts of men is more terrifying than any force of nature.

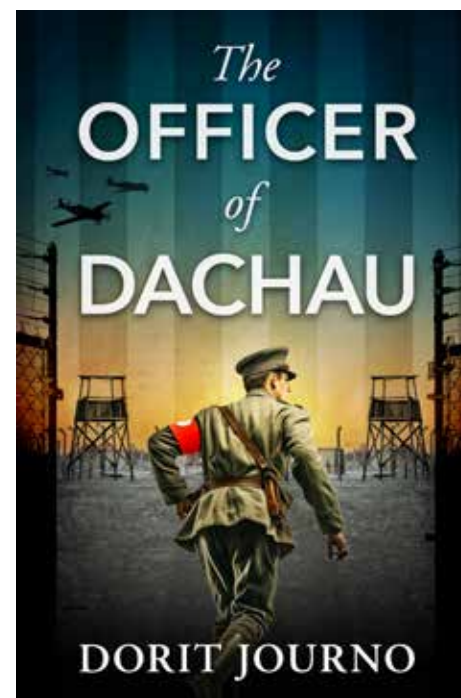

THE GERMAN DRESSMAKER

A WWII Historical Novel

Susan Shalev

Lily falls head over heels in love with Heinrich, a charming major in Hitler’s Wehrmacht. Their love affair quickly blossoms into a beautiful romance, but Heinrich has a secret – one that, if revealed, would put his life in grave danger. And now Lily’s, too.

As darkness takes over and secrets become harder to keep, the lovers are forced apart, lost to each other in a war-torn world. Devastated and alone, Lily is left to pick up the pieces of her life... the needle and thread in her hands the only comfort for her broken heart.

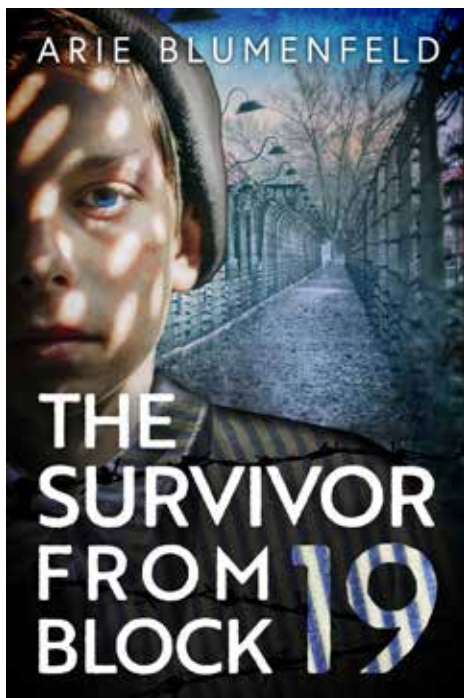

THE OFFICER OF DACHAU

*A gripping and unputdownable
WW2 historical novel*

Dorit Journo

Twenty-year-old nurse Ilse spends most of her time dutifully tending to the sick and injured. When she first meets the striking Johan Kirche, she is immediately captivated. But as their courtship ensues, something begins to change behind his once beautiful blue eyes...

When she discovers Johan is a brutal SS officer, Ilse ends their relationship. But as the Nazi party sweeps through Germany, Ilse’s past comes knocking on her family’s door – and their future will be forever changed.

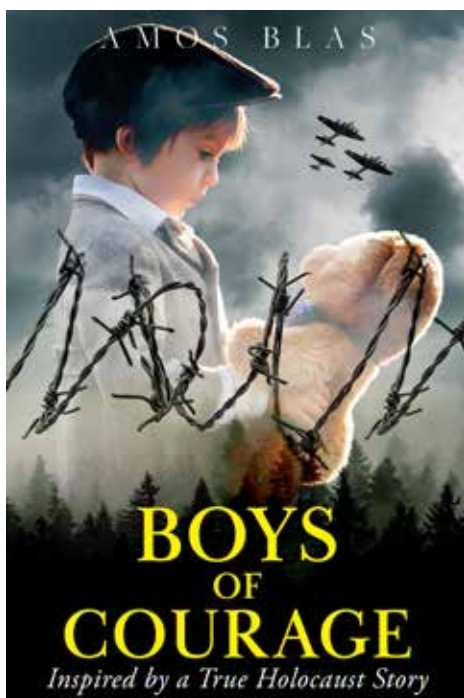

THE SURVIVOR FROM BLOCK 19

A Gripping and Emotional World War II Historical Novel, Based on a Holocaust Survivor's True Story

Arie Blumenfeld

Samuel is only sixteen when he enters the gates of Auschwitz-Birkenau. Forced deep inside the camp, he is marched past the smoking crematoriums, toward his future, toward his fate. Toward Block 19.

Block 19 will test his bravery and endurance in ways he could never have imagined. Even if he survives, will he ever heal from the deep scars of such darkness?

BOYS OF COURAGE

A WW2 Historical Novel, Based on a True Story of a Jewish Holocaust Survivor

Amos Blas

Kadish is barely more than a boy when war breaks out. Forced to grow up fast, he takes it upon himself to provide for his family in the ghetto – his helpless parents and younger cousin Robbie.

Until one night, Kadish disappears.

Years later, Robbie is now an old man. He's never known what happened to his hero after that terrifying day – until a phone call startles him in the middle of the night.

A stunning revelation unravels an incredible story that has waited decades to be told.

Daily life in Palestine is far from comfortable and the reality of living the Zionist dream while embarking on a love affair is agonizing. She chooses to leave everything behind and sails back home, to Poland. But when WWII breaks out and the situation in Europe goes from bad to worse, Syma will have to reevaluate her decisions.

THE CODE GIRL FROM LONDON

A WWII Historical Fiction Novel

Deb Stratas

On a classified Navy base, telegraph operator Katie Kingston toils day and night hunting for the next piece of information that will give Britain the edge in the war. But as the entire base quietly prepares for Britain's most daring operation yet, Katie has more at stake than her fellow telegraphists. With her family in Blitz-torn London and her beloved far off on enemy soil, Katie's job has never been more important. After all, what is she fighting for if not to keep them safe?

THE WAR TWINS OF LONDON

A WWII Historical Fiction Novel

Deb Stratas

Identical twins Maggie and Tillie are thriving in 1940s London. Waitresses in one of the city's finest institutions and both with budding romances, the war could not feel farther away.

Then, the Blitz begins. And everything changes. Nightly airstrikes wreak havoc on the city. Ambulance shifts for Tillie become desperate rescue missions, while the constant fear for the fates of their beloveds, far from home, is almost too much for the girls to bear. And when tragedy strikes for both sisters, nothing will ever be the same again.

A BURNING LONDON SKY

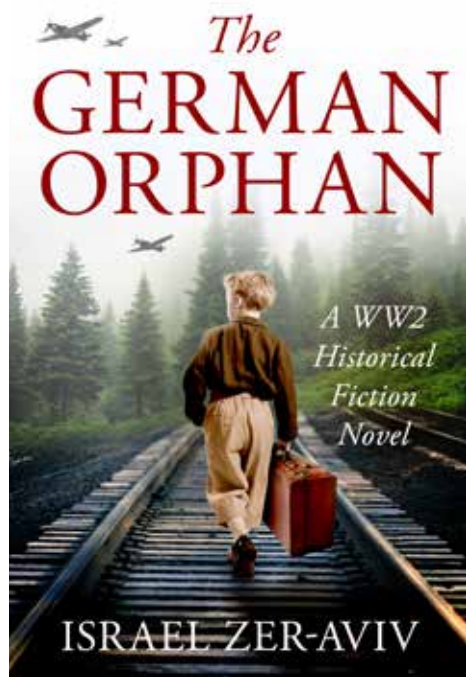

A WWII Historical Fiction Novel

Deb Stratas

Identical twins Maggie and Tillie have each suffered loss and heartbreak, but their hardships are only just beginning.

Which is why, when Maggie is confronted with a choice, it is one of the hardest she will ever have to make: stay with her sister and family or leave them behind for a dangerous military role manning the anti-aircraft batteries protecting London's skies.

Though it pains her to leave, Maggie can't ignore her duty. But life as a war girl will put her bravery and resolve to the test every single day.

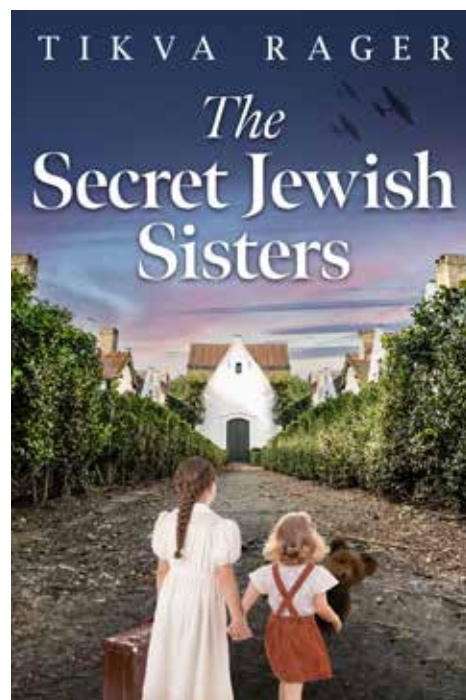

THE GERMAN ORPHAN

A WW2 Historical Fiction Novel Based on a True Story

Israel Zer-Aviv

Herman Lehrer is only eleven years old when the Nazis destroyed his orphanage on Kristallnacht. Now, young Herman (Manny) is left to fend for himself.

As he travels from Frankfurt to occupied France, Manny learns to conceal his true identity and become whoever he needs to survive: a French POW's long-lost son, a devout Catholic choir boy, or a German factory worker. Before long, Manny adapts to a world of lies and deception, where danger lurks at every corner – and every mistake could be his last.

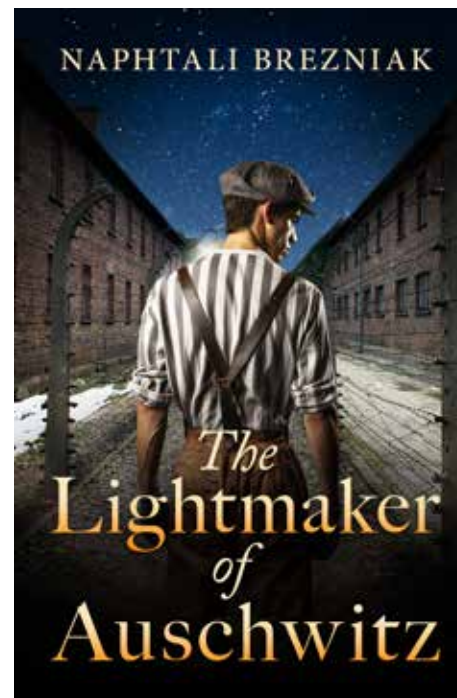

THE SECRET JEWISH SISTERS

A WW2 Historical Novel, Based on the True Story of a Holocaust Survivor

Tikva Rager

As the Nazi Party rises to power, sisters Rita and Suzie are sent to live in a small abbey outside Antwerp under the guise of two Christian orphans. But before he leaves, their father entrusts Rita with a task that will forever change her life...

Rita is left in charge not only of her sister – but of the secret of their Jewish identities. While Suzie is quick to embrace the abbey's Christian upbringing, Rita remains haunted by the secret that could spell only heart-break and pain for them both.

THE LIGHTMAKER OF AUSCHWITZ

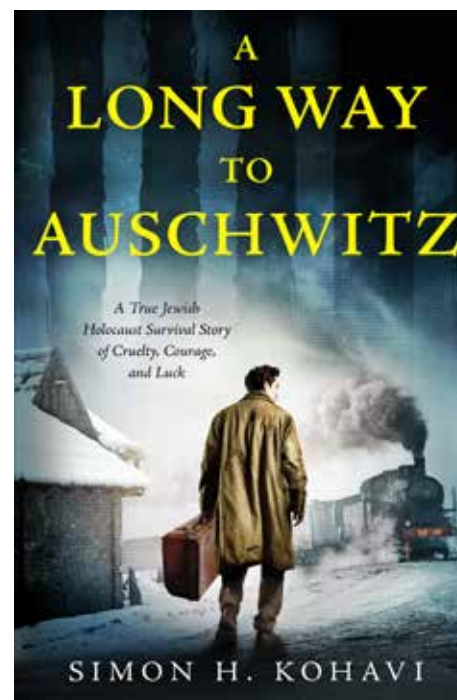

A WW2 Historical Page-Turner, Based on the True Story of a Holocaust Survivor

Naphtali Brezniak

When Moshe steps off the train at Auschwitz, everything changes.

Knowing he must avoid being assigned to Auschwitz's manual labor detail if he wants to survive, Moshe gives away the very last of his possessions in return for a job as an electrician.

His new position affords him liberties few others are granted, but with opportunity comes danger. And Moshe's quest to bring light to Auschwitz, all while struggling every day to survive, might prove to be an impossible quest.

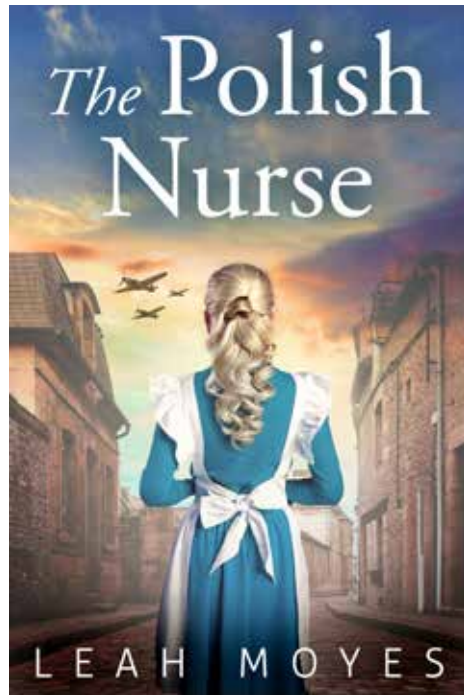

A LONG WAY TO AUSCHWITZ

A True Jewish Holocaust Survival Story of Cruelty, Courage, and Luck

Simon H. Kohavi

1939, Hungary. With the outbreak of World War II, Hungary became a dangerous place for Jews. Many men were recruited to the Forced Labor Service to help the Nazi army with their upcoming attacks. Shomo Stern was no different, but luck was on his side. A Long Way to Auschwitz is a unique book that tells Shomo's story of huge luck, unbelievable courage, and a wonderful personality within one incredible tale of survival.

THE POLISH NURSE

A WW2 Historical Fiction Novel

Leah Moyes

When Aleksandra is taken from school one day to join the infamous Lebensborn program – the German “voluntary reproduction” program, she knows her survival depends on keeping her true identity a secret.

Following a daring escape in a foreign land, Aleksandra takes a job as a nurse in the German city of Dresden. But just as she starts to think she might live to see the end of the war, her carefully crafted secret begins to unravel. If she ever wants to see her home and family again, she will have to risk it all – on her own.

THE AUSCHWITZ PHOTOGRAPH

A WWII Historical Fiction Novel

Julie Tulba

Samuel Weiss and Max von Hofmannsthal were best friends until the cruel antisemitism of Nazi Germany seeped into Berlin and tore their friendship apart. As Max rises in the ranks of the Nazi SS, Sam and his Jewish family struggle to survive the concentration camps, praying for the war to end.

And when Max and Sam’s paths cross once again among the bleak barracks of Auschwitz-Birkenau, their fates will intertwine in ways neither of them could ever have expected.

SIBLINGS OF WAR

A Captivating Family Survival WW2 Novel Based on a True Story

Chanochi Zaks

September, 1939. The Zaks siblings leave their quiet Polish hometown, on the run from the Nazis. But their escape does not go unhindered; and as they are captured by invading German forces, their father’s last command echoes in their minds: “Whatever you do, never, ever leave any one of your siblings behind.”

Reunions and tragedies follow as the Zaks siblings witness the horrors of Auschwitz, Buchenwald, and Bergen-Belsen, with only each other to protect them from the greatest evils man has ever known.

THE KEEPER OF THE LAUGH

A Completely Gripping WW2 Historical Fiction Novel

Danny Fromchenko

Max cannot remember anything from his life before the concentration camp. All he is left with is a sickening, maniacal laugh that echoes in his head.

Alexandra Brecholdt seems adamant on taking Max into her care, but there is something she is too afraid to tell him. The secret of her fortune, her survival – and her son.

As Max’s memories begin to unravel, he and Alexandra will learn the true meaning of courage, love, hope – and the ultimate secret behind the laugh.

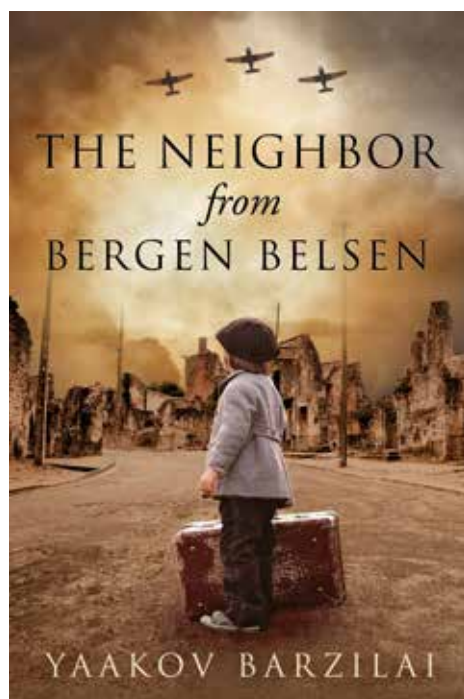

LALECHKA

*A WW2 Jewish Holocaust
Survival True Story*

Amira Keidar

The book follows Lalechka, a little girl born into the chaos of war and Holocaust and forced to struggle with the reversals of fortune that lead her time and time again into foreign and terrifying regions. But, beyond that, it is the story of the true friendship between three girls in early 20th century Poland, a friendship that refuses to cower before government dictates. An astonishing manifestation of loyalty and courage.

THE NEIGHBOR FROM BERGEN BELSEN

*A WW2 Jewish Holocaust
Survival True Story*

Yaakov Barzilai

11-year-old Yaakov and his family are forced out of their home into the unknown. They find themselves in the ghetto, living under impossible conditions, until they are banished by the Nazis to Bergen Belsen concentration camp, to what might be their final destination. A unique story about the unyielding love of a mother, about faith in God, and the naïve perspective of a child in the most challenging of times.

THE PARISIAN DANCER

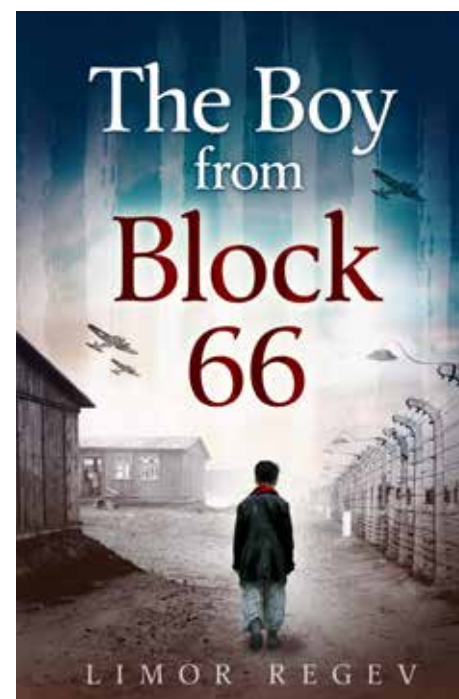

*A WW2 Historical Novel
Based on a True Story*

Doron Darmon

Paris, 1939. Helena is a talented dancer in Paris' bohemian quarter.

Her life is worlds apart from that of Marek and Annette, the young Jewish couple and their two little boys who live in the apartment above. Then, one day, Marek disappears. And everything changes.

Soon, Helena is vowing to keep and protect the boys as though they were her own. But as the Nazis strengthen their hold on the city, the beautiful dancer may not be enough to protect the boys, and herself, from what is to come.

THE BOY FROM BLOCK 66

*A WW2 Jewish Holocaust
Survival True Story*

Limor Regev

Moshe steps off the train at Buchenwald concentration camp with several hundred other children. Having endured the horrors of Auschwitz-Birkenau, Moshe has seen more than his share of tragedy. At Buchenwald, Block 66 is to be Moshe's new home. But when just a short time later, the Germans decide to send the camp's inmates to their death, they are not prepared for Buchenwald's secret resistance, which rises up with one mission: to protect the camp's children from harm.
